

Save the DATE..

This international conference, held every 2 years and alternating between the US and Europe, focuses on current research and advances in the science and technology of freeze drying.

For those new to the subject, a short course in the basics taught by Steve Nail, Greg Sacha and Ed Trappler is offered on Tuesday, July 7. The conference welcome reception will be held Tuesday evening, with sessions running Wednesday morning through Friday afternoon.

More information coming soon!

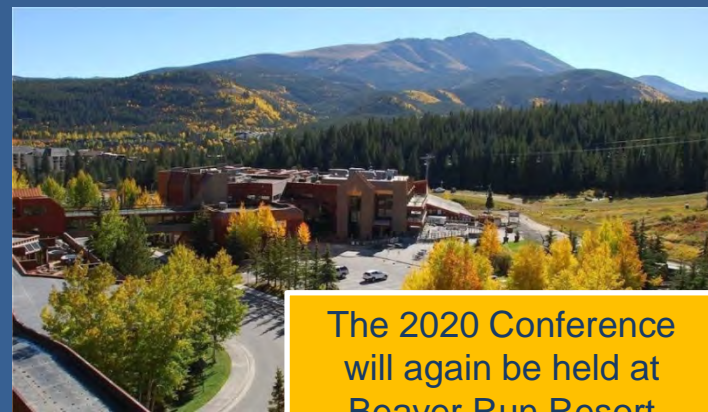

The National Institute for Pharmaceutical Technology & Education

FREEZE DRYING OF PHARMACEUTICALS & BIOLOGICS

Short Course and Conference

July 7-10, 2020

The 2020 Conference will again be held at Beaver Run Resort Breckenridge, Colorado